d. Stated that our program of drop operations into a certain area was under review and briefly discussed the points being considered. The Director discussed ways and means of introducing agents and stated that (1) it would be necessary to continue these operations particularly from the training view-point; (2) agents would not be dropped for the sole purpose of indicating our ability to do so; (3) these people would be "sent in" to perform specific small missions and brought out in the shortest length of time; (4) expressed a desire to see some of the missions assigned to agents.
